

2013 PAR THREE SHOOTOUT RESULTS

Par 3 Shootout #1 April 21st

Jeremy Johns and Fred Buechel
2013 Par Three Shootout #1 Champs

Scoring conditions were tough for the first par three of the year with only four teams from the sold out event shooting under par. One under was enough to get the team into a playoff to take home the championship. The first tiebreaker used was most consecutive birdies which knock off the team of Andrew and Jim Lang.

With three teams still in the hunt most total number of birdies was used, with three birdies and two bogeys the team of John Proctor and Ryan Meharry finished 3rd. It came down to a scorecard playoff to determine the winner. A birdie on eleven by Jeremy Johns and Fred Buechel was enough as they finished in 1st and Dave and Doug proctor came in 2nd.

Par 3 Shootout #2 April 28th

Dan Bzura and Brian Kromrei
2013 Par 3 Shootout #2 Champs

The second par three which was played on a much nicer day and some argued easier pins the scores were slightly better. Three teams shot under par in a smaller field. All three teams had five birdies but for Scott Call and John Reiger those birdies were offset by two bogeys for a 3rd place finish at three under. Sal Petrusis's group was able to slide into second place at three under utilizing the most consecutive birdies tiebreaker. Dan Bzura and Brian Kromrei were able to escape with only one bogey in route to a four under 50 to win the Par Three Shootout #2.
